

COMMUNICATING WITH PROGRAM AND CAMPUS PARTNERS

After Students are Accepted

NAME OF CAMPUS:

QUESTIONS	ANSWERS
How do students connect with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) or the office that provides services and accommodations to students with disabilities?
How are faculty and staff prepared to interact with students with ID?
For DRC: What documentation of a disability does the student need to give to the DRC?
For DRC: How recent must the documentation be?
For DRC: What events, activities, or support groups are sponsored by your office? How does the student find out about these opportunities?
How should the student connect with the campus Health Clinic if they have health needs?
Are students able to get prescriptions through the Health Center?
Where do students purchase their textbooks?
Are students required to have their own computer?

QUESTIONSANSWERS

Are buses or public transportation found on campus?
Are ride-hailing services (for example, Uber) available?
Are campus shuttles or buses available? Are they accessible?
Can students park on campus?
Can students' caretakers or medical providers park on campus?
How do students connect with academic support services on campus?
Who helps the student with advisement about classes?
How does the student learn to use the library? Does the library have accessible equipment?
Is health insurance available to students?
Are there cafeterias, cafes, and restaurants on campus?
Are food services and stores open on weekends?
Are there activities and events on weekends?
Does the campus have a security or police department? Have they been trained to interact with students with ID?
