

IDEAS FOR COMMUNICATING WITH POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION PROGRAM STAFF

IDEAS	ADDITIONS OR CHANGES FOR YOUR FAMILY
Make a commitment to include students in the conversation when you discuss issues or topics with postsecondary education program staff.
Make a list of topics you and your student agree are appropriate for the student to talk to postsecondary education program staff.
Make a list of topics you and your student agree are appropriate for family members to talk to postsecondary education program staff.
Gather announcements and information from staff and volunteer to post information about the program on social media or email blasts so other family members can quickly learn information.
Talk to program staff to determine what needs they have. Speak to community groups about helping with these needs.
Other ideas:
Other ideas:	